

Welcome To The
WOOLAROC
 Museum and Wildlife Preserve
Benefit Trail Rides
 May 20th & September 9th

The country retreat of oilman Frank Phillips, Woolaroc is hidden away in the beautiful rolling Osage Hills. Our trail rides cover approximately 15 miles of terrain that is rarely, if ever, seen by the general public. Nothing would have pleased Mr. Phillips more than to know guests were enjoying his ranch doing something he loved to do...ride. It is common to see buffalo, elk, deer and longhorn cattle along the trails of Woolaroc.

From 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. non-riders can enjoy the many Woolaroc attractions, including the Lodge and Museum with the masterful western art of Remington, Leigh and Russell, one of the world's finest collections of Colt firearms, and an excellent collection of Navajo blankets.
